[illegible]

1. Each bidder [illegible] a deposit [illegible] officer conducting the sale, [illegible] but defaulters to the department, will not be allowed to bid at the sales.

In the case of purchasers of timber in small quantities, full value thereof, will be received, if tendered on the spot, and the payment of deposit in such cases will not be insisted upon.

2. Any person bidding at the sale may be required by the officer conducting the sale to state whether he is bidding on his own behalf or as an agent, and in the latter case, to produce a written authority duly signed by the principal.

3. The highest bidder shall ordinarily be the purchaser, but the officer conducting the sale, can reject any bid or stop the sale at any stage without assigning any reasons to the intending purchasers.

4. Immediately after the lot is knocked down to him, the successful bidder shall sign his name opposite the number and specification of the lot bought by him in a book provided for the purpose. Such signature shall be held as admission on his part of having purchased such lot and of having accepted the terms of the sale as herein specified. All sales in which the amount exceeds Rs. 1,000 in each case, are subject to the confirmation of the Conservator and in other cases to that of the District Forest Officer.

5. After the declaration of the sale, each purchaser shall pay 10 per cent of the purchase amount in cash immediately after the sale and obtain in return from him a receipt voucher for the same, which will serve as well as the initial deposit of Rs. [illegible]. The balance of the purchase amount shall be paid in full on or before the 30th June 1930. Should any person fail to pay the initial deposit of Rs. 200 shall in no case be forfeited to Government, but the officer conducting the sale shall be at liberty to resell the timber or any portion thereof which he shall be required to make good any loss, but shall not be entitled to any profit from such resale. The amount due by such defaulter on account of such loss shall be recovered from him as a revenue demand under section 79 [illegible] Act, 1 of 1918, after deducting such losses, the initial deposit forfeited to Government [illegible].

[illegible] payment of value where no bidders are forthcoming, [illegible] District Forest Officer to fix such price as may appear to him to be [illegible] for the recovery from the defaulter of the balance if any, after deducting [illegible] from the original sale amount. A registered notice should be issued to the defaulter intimating the price fixed by the District Forest Officer for the article sold and the amount still due from him which will be recovered [illegible] of the rules.

6. The deposits tendered by the unsuccessful bidders shall be returned immediately after the sale is concluded, those of successful bidders being lodged in Government Treasury as security [illegible].

The purchase money of timber purchased shall be paid for within 30 days after the date of sale, failing which interest at the rate of [illegible] per cent per annum will be charged from the date of sale whichever is [illegible]. In the case of purchasers of timber worth Rs. 1,000 in value, the purchaser shall be permitted to pay the value in instalments of not less than Rs. [illegible] provided the full value is paid within [illegible] days from the date of sale. The money shall be paid into the Government Treasury and the receipt [illegible] Officer may direct within the time specified.

8. If the amount be not paid by the purchaser before the 15th May 1930, the initial deposit as well as the other moneys already paid in, shall be forfeited to Government and all or any portion of the timber not fully paid for shall be resold at the risk of the purchaser in the manner prescribed for default of payment of one-tenth value in clause 5 supra.

9. No timber is to be removed or allowed to be removed by the purchaser unless it has been paid for in full, calculated at the rate at which the timber is knocked down to him at the time of sale, excluding the 10 per cent deposit paid for the lot at the time of the sale and no timber shall be removed from the depot unless a permit is obtained from the Forest Officer in charge of the depot. The security deposit will not be adjusted towards the value of timber, until 90 per cent of the purchase price is covered and before the security deposit has been paid.

10. Timber purchased should be removed as early as possible, and in no case should it be allowed to remain longer than 15 days after the date fixed in clause 7 supra. Timber not removed after notice remains in the Depot at the risk of the purchaser from the date of the confirmation of sale.

11. If the timber is not removed within the time allowed, the same may, after ten days' notice to the purchaser, be resold in public auction and the proceeds will be given to the purchaser after defraying all the expenses in connection with the resale.

12. The deposit of Rs. 200 will remain as security for the due fulfilment of all and every one of the terms of sale, and in the breach of any of which by the purchaser, the District Forest Officer shall be at liberty to forfeit the deposit in whole or in part and in the event of such forfeiture, the sale so effected shall be immediately cancelled by the purchaser so long as the transaction is not finally closed. The security deposit or the balance thereof, if any, shall be returned to the purchaser after the full value of timber purchased has been paid for and the timber fully removed.

13. Interest will be charged on all belated payments at 9 per cent from the date of same falling due up to the date of payment.

KRISHNASWAMY RAO,
District Forest Officer.
